Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:- In reply to yours of March 15th, which is enclosed, I say that I have never been naturalized but claim citizenship through the naturalization of my father who was a citizen of the United States for five years before I was born.

My mother was a native of Maryland. She was travelling in Germany at the time of my birth. I came to Baltimore at the age of four months, sailing from Bremer haven on the ship Nurmberg, July 1877.

I have resided in Baltimore continuously for twenty-four years. Enclosed please find naturalization papers of my father and my original application.

Hoping same will cover all necessary formalities, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

Irving J. Spear M.D.
Baltimore, Md.

the time of my birth. I came to Baltimore at the age of 10 months and my mother was a native of Maryland. She was residing in Germany at that time. I was born in Baltimore, Maryland, in the year 1851.
My father was a citizen of the United States for the entire time of my birth and he was residing in Baltimore at that time. I have never been naturalized and believe the naturalization laws of the United States apply to me. I am a resident of Baltimore, Maryland, U. S. A.

Department of State,

Dear Sir :-

The annexed blank is the one sent us from your department to be filled out as Mrs. Emma B. Kennedy's application for a passport in lieu of one previously and herewith enclosed. We have filled out this blank as nearly as can be done in accordance with the facts, merely to indicate how the application would appear, but inasmuch as Mrs. Kennedy has no personal knowledge of her husband coming to this country nor of his naturalization, it would hardly, it seems to us, be proper to ask her to make oath to such affidavit. She is a native citizen, who sometime after Mr. Kennedy's arrival in this country, became acquainted with him and subsequently married him, both continuously residing here. She has never intended to surrender her citizenship by her marriage. We have added the words descriptive of her marriage to Mr. Kennedy in her first application, and return both the previous application of herself and her husband, with two certificates of Mr. Kennedy's naturalization which we trust will be sufficient. As Mr. Kennedy may temporarily be obliged to leave Mrs. Kennedy to attend to business in an adjoining country, it was thought ~~it~~ advisable that she should have a separate passport to use in case of his absence, and in that event it would be better to make no reference to the fact in her passport that she was married to a naturalized citizen or otherwise. We re-enclose fee $2.

Yours respectfully,

D. Forest Brothers.
